Mr. Fred Niblo, the American humorist-tourist, will give the first of his series of "Talks of Travel in Distant Lands" this evening. The first of the series of zig-zag journeys around the world will be entitled "Africa, from the Cape to Cairo." These pic-torial tours are each graphically illus-trated with hundreds of colored views and panoramic photographs, augment-ed by many absolutely original motion pictures, all the illustrative material being the personal work of Mr. Niblo, obtained during a long tour of explora-tion which included a lengthy sojourn in the interior districts of the Dark Continent. That sportsman's paradise, the big game country, will be shown in its entirety. The objective points of the Roosevelt hunting expedition will be seen, together with the most remarkable collection of wild animal pictures ever secured. The pictorial part of the zig-zag journey will be explained in a humorous as well as instructive manner by Mr. Niblo, who has won international renown as a

In all the years he was before the public, the late Mr. Joseph Jefferson upheld the traditions of the stage. No breath of scandal ever smirched his fair name, no shaft of public criticism was ever leveled at his head, no work of destruction ever whispered against him. Throughout his entire career he clung to the high ideals he set for himto the drama with the high resolve to be worthy of a place with the most exalted of those who had preceded him.

He demonstrated that a man may be a echolar, a gentleman, and a success-ful business man, and still follow the ful business man, and still follow the stage as a profession. These same worthy principles have been instilled in the minds of his sons, Joseph and William W., his natural successors in the comedy roles and who are to present Richard Brinsley Sheridan's ultra aristocratic comedy, "The Rivals", tomorrow evening.

Mme. Kenny Lipzin, the celebrated Yiddish actress, heads the All-Star Yiddish Company which comes Thursday evening, in "Cain and Abel," and is proclaimed to be the most famous artiste in this country. Her work has not only appealed to the Yiddish speaking people of New York but has attracted the attention of and has been recommented upon by the representative attracted the attention of and has been commented upon by the representative critics of that city. The above mentioned actress supported by an excellent cast, will present the best Yiddish play, written specially for Mme. Lipzin by the Yiddish playwright, Mr. L. Kobrin. The play ran for over 200 consecutive nights at one of the leading theatres in New York city.

"Montana", by Harry D. Carey, the talented young author-actor, is essen-tially a drama of the deeds and not of words. Many of the strongest scenes could be played in pantomime so little do they depend on the lines that the players read. In this regard they are like some of the best scenes in Shakes-pearsan dramas. "Montana" is a dramatic gem that sparkles against all environments. It touches all hearts. There is scarcely a passion known to humanity that it does not show in its utmost strength and with all those human passions are so closely woven in the threads of the drama, that it stands unrivalled as regards powerful effects and deepest pathos. "Mon-tana" will be seen Friday and Satur-day, with daily matinees.

The company which will be seen next Monday evening in support of Fritzi Scheff in Charles Dillingham's produc-tion of "The Prima Donna" is one of the most important that has ever beer assembled for a light opera in this country. There are names in the cast to conjure with wherever people know the real people of prominence on the American and English stages. There is for instance James E. Sullivan, own-er of one of the richest German dia-lects ever heard, who became internationally famous in "The Belle of New York". Then there is William Ray York". Then there is William Ray-mond, an English leading man; Wil-liam K. Harcourt, one of the best lead-ing men in this country; Herbert Ay-ling, a veteran English character actor;

Phil Branson, who a few years ag was known all over America as hav ing the finest tenor voice in light opera in this country, and who is now playing an Italian character role with George Thornton plays "Mose" the pickaninny. Maggie Baxter presents her original role of "Mary Johnson." The chorus of pretty girls add much to the jollity of the act. Four songs are sung "Bye Baby Bunting." "Simple Simon Simple," "Bambooland," and "Daisy." Everett Buttefield, the former star of the Poli Stock Co. who is in vaudeville, has a voice that is neculiarly adapted to the singing of ballads and his efforts appeal to the sentiments of his hearers. A favorite in the legitimate he is also a most pleasing vaudeville entertainer. When Harry First as "Old Man Isaacs" orders wine by wire to cele-brate his son's marriage fete he pre-sents one of the funniest situations ever seen upon the stage. As a whole his performance is a clever portrayal of Hebrew character acting.

One of the prettiest staged acts of the season is that in which pretty Isabel Butler and her skating partner appear to present their latest novelty skating on real ice. And maybe they cant' skate. The crack skaters you used to know as children might have been able to make an eagle's wing on the ice, but this pair can make the wings of all the birds.

Besides there are the Musical John-stons, Sidney Baxter, the aerial cyclist; Hugh J. Emmett, the California ventriloquist; and the electrograph.
